MIST MISTINGS

County Clerk Hant was in Port-land Tuesday on official business. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Snelling visited with friends in Portland Sunday.

Harold Broughton was in Port-

The Red Glove—Sunset Theatre.
Don't miss this great play.
Mr. and Mrs. James Hunt spent the week end in Westport, visiting

r. Hunt's parents. Mr. and Mrs. George Shinn were uests of friends in Portland last Sunday.

Lawrence Davies left last Friday for Salem to enter the Willamette university.

Mrs. J. C. Gore of British Colum-bia, is here on a visit to her son.

George A. Gore.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lidyard were the guests of friends in Deer Island

Miss Edrie LaBare left Sunday for Monmouth and will take a course of study in the normal college there.

Dr. and Mrs S. B. Boskins, after a ten days' honeymoon spent at Seaside, returned to St. Helens Monday. L. Robinson, aged 22, a brother of Mrs. Noble Woodward, who lives near West St. Helens, died Wednes-day from an attack of heart trouble

C. D. White left Tuesday for a short trip to his old home in Kansas. Before returning west he will visit several cities in Minnesota.

Mrs. H. Jones and Mrs. F. Weatherford of Portland, were recent guests of Mrs. C. E. Lufkin, who lives near Yankton.

Ed Jones of Newberg, has accepted a position in the store of A. E. Aus-tin. Mr. Jones is an experienced sales-

Mrs. Fred Trow of Rainier, is here the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. F. Barnett. Mrs. Trow has charge of the fancy work display at the county fair.

H. E. Abry, county roadmaster, spent several days in the Lower Nehalem this week, laying out new road work and doing other work in connection with the roadmaster's office.

J. H McKie and Victor Carlson rewhere they have been doing some rock work for the county.

Harry Richardson, who was on the sick list for several weeks, has sufficiently recovered to permit him to

Mr. and Mrs. John Lamberson of West St. Helens, left Saturday for eastern Oregon, where they will visit relatives for some time.

R. N. Lovelace, who lives near Rainier, is here helping to entertain the big crowds at the fair. Mr. Lovelace is one of the fair board.

Mrs. Flora Owen will leave soon for Eugene, Oregon, where she will take charge of one of the sorority houses during the coming school year at the university. Her place as librarian will be filled temporarily by Mrs. Frank George. It is understood that when the library board next meets, a librarian will be appointed. The local Masonic fraternity is in possession of two books which they prize highly. They are two volumes of history of the Oregon and Califorial According to President George A Gore of the American Legion, the of the library of the late Judge F. A. prospects are that at the next regular the mambarahia will be Moore. The judge was a member of lar meeting the membership will be St. Helens lodge and he desired that largely increased. Mr. Gore was in the books be given his old lodge so Portland Tuesday and attended the cut cordwood and sell it, should have a itself the first year you use it.

Every Farmer

Who has any amount of wood to cut or wishes to

Wade Drag Saw

We are exclusive agents in this territory for this saw. The price is $170 and the saw will pay for

Call and see how it works

E. G. DITTO

ST. HELENS, OREGON

The Red Glove Sunset Theatre. Mrs. C. C. Masten is here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Beaver.
Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McCormick returned to St. Helens Tuesday, after several days spent in Portland.

John Burns and John Burns an

Harold Masten, a former St. Hel- Island were at the fair grounds on ens bay and well known here, spent Thursday and will be there again to- af ew days in St. Helens this week.

Ray McManus, of Eureka, Califor- Miss Jessie Garner of Astoria was nia, is here on a visit at the home of the guest several days this week Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roy.

"Mickey" McDonald, after a busi-ness trip to Portland, returned to St. Helens at 5:30 a. m., Thursday

James Muckle, one of St. Helen's ploneer citizens, who now lives in Portland, was here Wednesday call-ing on friends.

The residence owned by Peter Mc-Gorty, just oppsite the city park, has been purchased by the trustees of the Methodist church and will be

The J. W. Allen's, the Southard's, C. E. Lake's, A. B. Lake's, the Buck's and Rutherford's enjoyed a big family picnic in the Spitzenberg neighborhood Sunday.

Andrew Forsgren, who has living with relatives in the Bachelor Flat neighborhood, was examined as to his sanity Monday and upon recommendation of the doctors, was committed to the state hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gramm and daughter, Dorris, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. William Doose of Ballinger, Texas, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. P. H. Brakke and son, P. H. Jr., came down from Portland on Wednesday to take in the fair. They re guests at the home of Mrs. Brak-e's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William

St. Helens will be well represented at the U. of O. this term. Lester Wellington, Walden and Mason Dillard have decided to attend that institution and probably there will be sev-

Berger Nelson, who has been in ill health for sometime was taken to Portland Monday by Charles Mc-Cauley to be examined by a special-ist. Nelson is a member of the St Helens Local, Longshoremen's union.

Miss Marie Paulsen, deputy county clerk, has tendered her resignation to Clerk Hunt and will relinquish the position when a successor is appointed. Miss Paulsen expects to soon leave for Detroit, Michigan, soon leave for Detroit, Michigan, and will spend the winter there with her sister, Mrs. Fred Ragan.

Lady Ross, who has been here on an extended visit to her brother, Dr. A. J. Peel, left last Friday for Cali-fornia. She will spend the winter there before returning to her home in Canada.

Virgil Stevens has position in a store in Kalama, Washington and will move his family to that place. As soon as Stevens moves out, T. H. Roy and family will occupy the house.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stone accom-panied by Mrs. Fannie Ross and Cecil Ross left early Sunday morning in the Stone auto for an extended trip to Puget Sound points and British Columbia. They expected to

S. M. Miles brought them down from state convention of the Legion. Salem and presented them to the which was addressed by Colonel lodge.

John Pringle is serving on the federal grand jury in Portland.

Mrs. Charles L. Wheeler motored to Portland Thursday and spent the John Burns and family of Deer

the home of her intimate friend, Miss brother of our Henry Morgus. Eugenia Deming.
T. J. Flippin and Mrs. Flippin are from Rainier to take in the fair and are guests at the T. J. Flippin C. H. Robinson, of San Diego, California, is visiting hs friend, J. S. Bothwell. Mr. Robinson is in the lumber business in San Diego Judge W. H. Cooper was among the number of Scappoose people who were in St. Helens Thursday taking in the sights at the fair. In honor of Mrs. S. B. Hoskins, irs. A. J. Deming entertained a Mrs. A. J. Deming entertained a number of friends Monday afternoon. Mrs.

Refreshments were served. Rev. A. R. Spearow arrived in St. Helens Wednesday night after an extended trip to the large eastern He took part in the National Track meet at Philadelphia

The Methodist Ladfes Aid society will meet with Mrs. H. W. Christia Thursday afternoon, September 25. All members are urged to be present on account of election of officers.

Seems as though Bungalow Park is right on the line of travel of the stork for Thursday morning he stopped there long enough to leave a ten-pound boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harrison left last night for Portland to catch a Round-up train for the Round-up city. They expect to be absent for a number of days.

O. J. McConnell of Deer Island, was a Portland visitor Thursday and Friday. Enroute to the metropolis ie stopped by St. Helens and spent a few hours at the fair.

Receiving word that his mother was seriously ill, Mr. W. A. Harris, accompanied by his wife, left Tues-day for Buffalo, New York, where his mother resides.

George Brinn, a former resident of St. Helons, who now resides in Port land, was transacting business in St. Helens Thursday. All of the Brinn family are well and getting along nicely, he said.

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Fred Adams is quite ill with a severe attack of appendicitis. had expected to leave on a trip to her old home in England, but on account of her illness, the trip, of course, has been indefinitely postponed.

The fall fishing senson is not what the fish buyers and fishermen expected, according to the reports received at the Mist office. Many of the fishermen have put away their gear Others are making catches from 50 pounds to 500 pounds per night.

Edward Veazie, who has been in the government service and aiding in checking up the account of the shipping board with the Standifer-Clarkson yard at Vancouver, completed that job and returned to St. Helens Tuesday, and resumed his former position with the St. Helens Shipbuilding company.

Dr. and Mrs. Hoskin and Miss Eugenia Deming motored to Port-land Wednesday night to hear Col-onel Roosevelt. When they reached the Auditorium they found that sev-oral other thousands of people had come just a little too late—the building was filled to capacity.

Mrs. Jennie Sobieki of the Yank-n neighborhood, was in St. Helens nesday. The Yankton people, as St. Helens; 2nd, 50c, Mrs. D. W. Rich-Roses—1st, $1, Mrs. G. A. Macc, St. Helens; 2nd, 50c, Mrs. Eugene sual, would attend the fair in large. Mrs. Jennie Sonieki of the Yank-ton neighborhood, was in St. Helens Tuesday, The Yankton people, as usual, would attend the fair in large numbers, she said. The people of that neighborhood have always been much interested in the fair and for some years it was held in Yankton, Mrs. Sobieki is secretary of the St. Hel-ens Co-operative Creamary associa-tion.

Mrs. John Pringle is in hopes that hers on George will soon arrive home. She bases her hopes on the fact that She bases her hopes on the fact that a letter written to the young sailor was returned "undelivered." George wrote home a few weeks ago stating he thought he would soon receive his discharge from the navy. At that time he was in Charleston, S. C., and on the Tallahassee, He metioned the fact that he had been promoted to boatswains mate second class.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hauptman, of SanFrancisco, are here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McCormick of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McCormick of the missing the first that he had been promoted to boatswains mate second class.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hauptman, of sanFrancisco, are here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McCormick of the missing the first that he had been promoted to boatswains mate second class.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hauptman, of san francisco, are here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McCormick of the missing the first that he had been promoted to boatswains mate second class.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hauptman, of sand to entertain the thousands who will be in attendance.

In the next issue of the Mist a

Mr. Hauptman is treasurer of the Charles R. McCormick company and of the St. Helens Lumber company and a heavy stockholder in both concerns. He is here on business connected with the operation of industries in which he is interested.

The Roosevelt Memorial association had a rousing meeting in Port Don't fail to see the "Red Glove" at the Sunset Thertre, Houlton.

On account of being crowded for space and trying to give as much fair news as possible, our weekly story on "Footprints of Pioneer Days" will not appear until next week.

John Morgus and family of South Bend, Washington, are in St. Helens, having been called here by the death of Fred Morgus. Mr. Morgus is a Fred Morgus.

the list of names drawn for the federal grand jury, October term, appears the names of E. McVey of Columbia City and E. H. Joseph of Rainier. These two are the only ones from Columbia county catled for jury duty.

Heginning Monday merning the mill of the St. Helens Lumber company will go back to the 8-hour day During the past few months the men have been working 10 hours per but they received time and one half for the two hours overtime, or three ohurs pay for two hours work. The 127 acre tract of fand adjoining the city limits of St. Helens known as the "Sister's Tract" been sold by H. F. McCormick and Charles L. Wheeler to the Columbia County Real Estate Company of St. Helens, and will be immediatery surveyed into five and ten acre These will be sold on easy through the Rutherford Realty Company.

Indications are that the pack of fruit and vegetables at the Columbia Canning company will be very large The beans continue to come in in large amounts and there has also been a quatity of fruits, especially prunes. Mr. Rosasco states pecially prunes. Mr. Rosasco states that he has been fortunate in having sufficient help so that the crew were able to take care of the fruits and came and there vegetables as they would be no repetition of last year's losses, which was occasioned by a lack of help. As soon as possible lack of help. As soon as po Mr. Rosesco will furnish the As soon as possible with a statement of the pack, the amount of money paid for produce and fruit and the amount of money paid in wages. The latter two will run far into the thousands of dol-

SHIPPING NEWS

The motor schooner La Marced, arrived in St. Helens early Thursday morning, coming from Mexico. The vessel will load 1,500,000 feet of rail-

Another one of the government shipping board steamers is expected here Monday to take a cargo of ties to England.

The steamer Multomah arrived in Monday morning and sailed Thursday night with a cargo of 935,000 feet of lumber and a good passenger list. San Pedro and San Diego were the destinations of the steamer.

Carrying 1,000,000 feet of lumber Daisy Matthews, left on Monday for Prescott to complete her lumber cargo for San Pedro deliv-

The steamer Wapama, Captain Foldat, got away Wednesday night carrying a million feet of lumber and a full capacity list. The vessel bound for Southern California ports, via San Francisco.

LARGE CROWDS AT FAIR

(Continued from page one)

Cut Flowers-1st, $1.50, Miss Kate Freeman; 2nd, $1, Mrs. Eugene Allen, Rainfer.
Dahlias—1st, $1, Mrs. Hooghkirk,
Rainfer: 2nd, 50c, Mrs. D. W. Rich-

Allen, Rainier.
Asters—Ist, $1, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Rainier; 2nd, 50c, Mrs. D. W. Richardson, St. Helens.
Geraniums—1st, $1, Mrs. A. Mace, St. Helens; 2nd, 50c, Miss Virginia Morton, St. Helens.
Pansies—1st, $1, Mrs. Eugene Allen, Rainier; 2nd, 50c, Mrs. A. Mace, St. Helens.
Gladioli—1st, $1, Miss Kate Freeman, Warren; 2nd, 50c, Mrs. A. Mace, St. Helens.

Amusements Galore

An amusement company is furnishing the features for the fairferris wheel, merry-go-rounds, doll racks, games of chance, etc. And then there's the Ada show. To see Ada one pays 25 cents and on encounty. The quota which is $37,500. Of this amount, $21,000 has been apportioned to Multnomah county. The quota assigned to Columbia is only $230. S. C. Morton was appointed as county chairman and had intended to be present at the meeting, but finding it impossible to 10, the county was well represcanted by George A. Gore, who repoorte an enthusiastic meeting. The county committee will soon be annourced and the drive will start on October 20.

BOUDOIR

In dainty styles with laces and n good grade silk m Special values at Union Suits and two-piece garments. A number of styles and weights. Just the garments for fall and winter.

Foot Wear

Utz & Dunn Shoes for Ladies. Master Made and Florsheim Shoes for Men

Educator Shoes for Children.

A complete line of Rubber Goods for wet weather Slickers, Rubber Boots, Rubbers, Umbrella

AUSTIN'S

LIBERTY THEATR

Home of Good Pictures

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19-

Jack Pickford in "Great Exper tions"

and Two-Reel Comedy

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20-A Richard K. Fox "All Star Prod tion"

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21-

Bryant Washburn in "Kiddie

Scenic and Comedy

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22-

A Richard K. Fox production and "Sunshine Comedy"

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23-

Kitty Gordon in "The Belovee" venturess" and Kinograms

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21-Lucil Stewart in "The Eleventh Co mandment"

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25-

Alma Rubins in "A Man's County Comedy and Scenic

LIBERTY THEATRE

ALVA SMITH, Manager

